Policies & Procedures

If you are interested in participating in a short-term mission trip with Faith Presbyterian Church, please read the following:

- You must submit this completed application AND a non-refundable $100 deposit before your application will be processed and reviewed. The $100 check will be deposited in the bank immediately. In the event your application is not accepted, your $100 will be transferred to the church's general fund.
- Please attach a copy of your passport if applicable.
- Participants must adhere to the rules outlined in the Team Covenant. Please read it before applying.
- No one will be considered as a team member until a completed application has been reviewed and accepted.
- The Missions Committee or the Missions Director will review your application, and a personal interview may be required.
- Short-term mission trips can be rewarding and life changing; however, they can also be stressful. Please consider factors in your personal life at this time that may distract or prohibit you from fully committing to the mission of the trip and adapting to unusual conditions.
- Once accepted, team members are expected to attend all team meetings. Team meetings will review in-depth information to prepare you for the trip.
- All trip costs are the team member's responsibility and due one month before departure. Your Team Leader will provide a booklet that suggests ways to raise financial support; however, if full support is not raised, the balance is your responsibility. You may not begin to raise funds until you are notified of acceptance to the team and informed of proper fund-raising procedures.
- Team members are expected to contribute a minimum of 10% toward their support needs.
- To be considered for financial assistance from the Missions Committee, the scholarship application must be submitted a minimum of 2 months prior to departure.
- If you are unable to participate in your trip, the Missions Director must receive cancellation notice as soon as possible. You may be responsible for all your trip costs. Money put towards mission trips are considered contributions and are therefore non-refundable.
- Team members will be given information regarding passports and vaccination recommendations from the Department of Health. Passport and vaccination costs are not included in the trip costs and are the responsibility of the team member. Estimated immunization costs are $100 - $300, depending on what you need. Team members assume the responsibility and liability for their personal health decisions.
- For additional information regarding the price and dates for each mission trip, contact Haley Simms (hsimms@faith-pca.org).

Consider the Cost of Short-Term Missions

Fundraising is an integral part of your short-term mission experience. Don't let money keep you from applying for a short-term trip. God could be waiting for an opportunity to show you how big He is! Detailed fundraising guidelines and materials will be provided at trip team meetings. Here are some inevitable costs that are your personal responsibility. Please remember that the passport costs and/or immunizations are separate from the total cost of the trip.

DEPOSIT & BALANCE

- The non-refundable $100 deposit that is submitted with your application is your responsibility.
- You are also required to provide 10% of your total support by yourself.
- In addition, if your fund-raising efforts are not entirely successful, the balance of the trip cost is also yours to pay.

PASSPORT

- Required for all trips out of the continental United States. If you need to apply for a passport or your passport is expired, please do not delay doing the following:
 - To apply for your first U.S. passport, you will need a certified birth certificate (not the hospital record), two passport photos, and a driver's license.
 - Visit www.travel.state.gov/content/travel/en/passports.html to determine if you can apply in person or by mail
 - All of this can cost $130-165 depending on when you apply. Passport fees are not included in the price of the trip.
 - You should allow eight to eleven weeks for your passport to arrive.
 - Also, remember that it sometimes takes state agencies several weeks to provide a certified certificate of your birth if you don't currently have one.

IMMUNIZATIONS

- FPC supports the immunizations that are recommended by the Center for Disease Control. Check the website to determine which vaccinations are recommended and consult your physician or the Jefferson County Department of Health – International Travel Clinic at (205) 930-1034 or (205) 588-2534 to determine costs.
- Vaccinations are not included in the price of the trip.
- It is recommended to receive immunizations 4-6 weeks before departure.
- Recommended vaccinations for all trips: Hepatitis A&B, Measles/Mumps/Rubella (*if born after 1956)
- Required vaccinations for all trips: Tetanus/Diphtheria/Pertussis (Tdap)
- A traveler's diarrhea prescription is also recommended
- The Jefferson County Department of Health will have the most recent immunization charts for all countries or check www.cdc.gov, or you may contact the Birmingham Travel Clinic at (205) 994-3152.

You should contact your insurance provider to inquire about the possibility of benefits for your immunizations and/or prescriptions.

WAIVER/RELEASE OF LIABILITY

_____ (the "Participant"), who will participate in a Short-Term Mission Trip to _____ (the "Mission Trip") from _____ to _____ (the dates) with Faith Presbyterian Church of Birmingham, Alabama ("Faith Church"), and if applicable, the parent/guardian of the Participant, signs this RELEASE in consideration of being permitted to participate in the Mission Trip.

The Participant, and if applicable, the parent/guardian of the Participant, on their behalf and on behalf of their personal representatives, heirs and assigns (collectively, "Representatives"), does hereby RELEASE, WAIVE AND DISCHARGE Faith Church, its members, officers, directors, employees, representatives and agents (collectively, the "Released Parties") from any and all claims, demands, rights and causes of action ("Claims") of any kind whatsoever which the Participant, the parent/guardian of the Participant, or any of their Representatives may have or later may have against any of the Released Parties resulting from or arising out of the Participant's participation in the Mission Trip, including, but not limited to, the Participant's travel to and from and stay in _____. The Participant, and if applicable, the parent/guardian of the Participant, further assumes full responsibility for the risk of bodily injury or death to the Participant due, in whole or in part, to the negligent acts or omissions of any of the Released Parties or due to the wanton, willful or intentional acts or omissions of any of the Released Parties, or otherwise, while on the Mission Trip.

The Participant, and if applicable, the parent/guardian of the Participant, gives the team leader of Faith Church the authority to request and authorize medical and/or hospital treatment for the Participant's benefit in the event of any injury or sickness sustained by the Participant while on the Mission Trip, including, without limitation, any injury or sickness sustained while traveling to and from the Mission Trip. The Participant, and if applicable, the parent/guardian of the Participant, agrees to pay for all such treatment and to reimburse Faith Church in and/or any of the Released Parties for all costs and expenses incurred by it or them with respect to such treatment.

The Participant is a Christian, and along with Faith Church and the other Released Parties, believes that the Bible commands Christians to make every effort to live at peace and to resolve disputes with one other in private or within the Christian Church (Matt. 18:15-20, I Cor. 6:1-8). Therefore, the Participant, and if applicable, the parent/guardian of the Participant, agrees that any claim or dispute arising from or relating to this RELEASE shall be settled by Biblically based mediation and, if necessary, legally binding arbitration in accordance with the Rules of Procedure for Christian Conciliation of the Institute for Christian Conciliation. A copy of such Rules of Procedure has been made available for the Participant's, and if applicable, the Participant's parent's/guardian's, inspection in the office of Faith Church, and the Participant, and if applicable, the parent/guardian of the Participant, has reviewed it (or hereby waives the right to review it) and consents to it. Any such mediation and arbitration shall take place in Birmingham, Alabama. Any judgment upon an arbitration award may be entered in any court having jurisdiction. The Participant, and if applicable, the parent/guardian of the Participant, along with Faith Church and the other Released Parties, understands that the methods set forth in this RELEASE shall be the sole remedy for any controversy or claim arising out of this RELEASE. Further, the Participant, and if applicable, the parent/guardian of the Participant, along with Faith Church and the other Released Parties, expressly waives any rights to file a lawsuit in any civil court against one another for any such controversy or claim, except to enforce a mediation or arbitration decision.

The Participant, and if applicable, the parent/guardian of the Participant, does hereby expressly agree that this RELEASE is intended to be as broad and inclusive as is permitted by the law, and that if any provision of this RELEASE is held to be invalid, the remaining provisions of this RELEASE shall, notwithstanding, continue in full legal force and effect.

If the Participant is less than nineteen (19) years of age, this RELEASE must be signed by a parent/guardian of such minor Participant.

I AM AWARE THAT MY PARTICIPATION IN THE MISSION TRIP MAY INCLUDE HAZARDOUS ACTIVITIES (INCLUDING TRAVELING OUTSIDE OF THE UNITED STATES), AND I AM VOLUNTARILY PARTICIPATING IN THE MISSION TRIP WITH KNOWLEDGE OF THE POTENTIAL DANGERS INVOLVED. I HEREBY AGREE TO ACCEPT AND ASSUME ALL RISKS OF INJURY, DEATH, OR OTHER DAMAGES. THIS IS A FULL RELEASE OF LIABILITY. READ CAREFULLY BEFORE SIGNING.

Funding Your Trip

Please check all that apply:

- I will pay for the entire trip with my personal funds.
- I plan on raising some support but will expect to pay a portion out of my personal funds.
- I hope to raise support to cover the entire trip (minus the 10% I am providing from my own funds.)

Short-term trip scholarship:

The Missions Ministry of FPC desires that many FPC members will choose to participate in a cross-cultural short-term mission trip. As a result, financial support may be given to assist the trip participant in fulfilling the obligations of the trip cost. The ability of the Missions Ministry to provide scholarships is dependent upon the availability of funds in the missions account and is connected to the number of applications submitted for scholarship assistance. The scholarship money comes directly from the generous donations of FPC members to the missions account. Some of you may expect to pay for the cost of the trip yourself or expect to receive the total cost of your trip provided in other ways besides an FPC trip scholarship. That is an acceptable way to approach funding your trip and enables others who are in greater financial need to receive additional consideration for a trip scholarship.

Please check one of the following:

- I would like to be considered for a scholarship in fulfilling my trip costs.
*The short-term trip scholarship application is due two months prior to the trip
- I am not requesting consideration for a scholarship in fulfilling my trip costs.

Note: You may be contacted by a staff member or a member of Faith's Missions Committee to discuss your scholarship request.

TEAM COVENANT

I realize that the following principles are crucial to the effectiveness, quality, and safety of our mission together. As a member of the short-term mission team, I promise and covenant, by God's abounding grace, to:

1. Remember that I am a representative of Faith Presbyterian Church, and as such I will seek to represent the spiritual values, moral conduct and likeness to Christ that are embraced and embodied in that assembly.
2. Remember that I am a guest working at the invitation of the personnel in the host country. I agree to respect and support their leadership.
3. Remember that I have come not only to teach, but also to learn. I may be exposed to procedures and practices that I feel are ineffective or insufficient. I may also be confronted by attitudes that I feel are narrow or close-minded. As this occurs, I will resist the temptation to "correct" my hosts and inform them about "how things are done back in the United States." I will rather be open to the opportunity of learning other cultures' methods and ideas.
4. Respect my host's culture and distinctive practices of Christianity. I recognize that the Christian faith has many different faces throughout the world and that one of the purposes of my trip is to witness and experience faith lived out in a different culture.
5. Develop and consistently maintain a servant's attitude toward all nationals and my teammates.
6. Respect our team leaders and their decisions.
7. Refrain from gossip and keep my promise of giving only good reports. If there are policies and decisions made by the leaders with which I disagree or do not understand, I will go to the team leaders in private and make my concerns known to them rather than to other team members. In so doing, I will avoid the possibility of sowing seeds of dissension and division.
8. Be patient, forbearing, and forgiving toward the failings of the other members on the team.
9. Refrain from complaining. I realize that travel can present numerous unexpected and undesirable circumstances, but the rewards of conquering such circumstances are desirable. I will resolve to be flexible, supportive, and adaptive on such occasions rather than grumbling when circumstances are difficult.
10. Respect the work that is going on in the host country with its pastors and leaders. I realize that our team will be there for just a short time, but the local church is there long term. I will respect their knowledge, insights, and instructions.
11. Refrain from negative comments or hostile discussions concerning the host country's politics and culture.
12. Remember not to be exclusive in my relationships with the team. If my significant other or spouse is on the team, we will make every effort to interact regularly with all members of the team.
13. Refrain from activity or undue interest that could be construed as a romantic interest toward a national. I realize that certain actions that seem innocent in my own culture may be inappropriate in another culture.
14. Refrain from any consumption of alcoholic beverages, including beer, wine, and liquors if directed by the team leader. I realize and accept that failure to adhere to this mandate may result in my exclusion from further short-term trips*
15. Refrain from use of any tobacco or tobacco-related products if directed by the team leader. I realize and accept that failure to adhere to this mandate may result in my exclusion from further short-term trips*
16. Seek to live an exemplary life of holiness and obedience to God's commands.
17. Commit to participating in a debrief of my trip with members of the team. The team leader will then report to FPC's Missions Committee.

*We understand that Scripture does not specifically prohibit tobacco and alcohol use. Our position on the use of tobacco and alcohol during projects is not based on a biblical mandate; rather it is born out of our experience in cross-cultural ministry. Cultural sensitivity dictates this policy. Some nationals view consumption of alcohol or tobacco as an inappropriate behavior for Christians. Since we are guests in their country and do not want to do anything that would compromise their witness, we defer to their standards and norms. On some adult projects, the team leader has the authority to grant an exception to this rule.
